Additional Information

Conversational English classes are FREE.

They are taught by certified volunteers through the International Ministry of First Baptist Church. All classes meet in the International Center on the corner of 8th Street and Greensboro Avenue in downtown Tuscaloosa (across 8th Street from the First Baptist sanctuary). All levels are offered. No preregistration is needed. Everyone is welcome! Please call the church office at 345-7554 for more information or email AVitt@fbctuscaloosa.org.

Resources

The International Center offers many resources for those interested in spending extra time learning English, about American lifestyles and customs, or about the Christian faith.

The International Library and Paul Vining English Language Lab contain books, audio cassettes and videos on many subjects. The International Center is open from 8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. every Thursday for individuals who wish to use the Library or other rooms for study. It may be opened other weekdays by appointment. Come early for class, or stay after class to watch a video or listen to audio tapes, do research or just read on your own. Children must be supervised in the Library room.
