A Woman Who Doesn't Quit:

Five Habits from the Book of Ruth

begins Wednesday, January 18

6:00-7:30 p.m., room FB308

Perseverance is one of the greatest skills but also the hardest lessons we will learn in our lifetime. We are living in a day where we are encouraged to do life based on how we feel. But the problem is most days we don't feel like doing much of anything hard.

Then there is Ruth. She is much more than a Bible story and through her life we uncover five life-giving habits that help us to persevere when things get hard, complicated, and messy. But these habits do more than just motivate, they help us to fight when resistance arises. They teach us to pursue discipline and the desire to determine our daily direction. These habits show how success is not achieved by pursuing temporary desires. The direction of our lives needs to be far less about to-do lists and accomplishments. And instead focus on becoming the people God can count on.

Cost of book: $13

Name Changes for Buildings

The Children's Center is now referred to as the "Family Ministry Building" (FB). This better reflects the usage and purpose of this facility. To make it easier to provide directions for visitors, the Multi-Purpose Building will now simply be called the Main Building (MB), as the Sanctuary/Chapel area is already called.

Building Abbreviations Key

MB - Main Building
(former Multi-Purpose Building)

FB - Family Ministry Building
(former Children's Center)
